

The 20th Iberian Congress of Entomology accepts funding for its organization and thus offers participation in oral presentations or poster sessions, as well as in other events of the congress to funding agents, in order to advertise their activities as public or private companies. In addition, their participation in the congress gives to funding agents the opportunity to meet specialists in different fields of Entomology and explore new proposals and cooperation.

Collaboration options are as follows:

- Collaborator Plus: More than 3000 €
- Collaborator Mid: 1500 - 3000 €
- Collaborator Basic: 100 - 1500 €

What are the benefits for funding agents?

Collaborator Basic:

- Display of the logo of the funding agent in the book of abstracts, hand program, banners, main screen of the Congress and web page of the Congress.

Collaborator Mid:

- Display of the logo of the funding agent in the book of abstracts, hand program, banners, main screen of the Congress and web page of the Congress.
- Possibility of company advertisement and sale in an exhibition area with a table and seat, to show their product to the congress delegates and other people around.
- Free registration for giving a talk or presenting a poster.

Collaborators Plus:

- Display of the logo of the funding agent in the book of abstracts, hand program, banners, main screen of the Congress and web page of the Congress.
- Possibility of company advertisement and sale in an exhibition area with a table and seat, to show their product to the congress delegates and other people around.
- Free registration for giving two talks or presenting two posters.

Atentamente. La Organización

From the organising committee of this congress, we welcome any further proposal or suggestion about possible ways of collaboration.

All collaborating agents wishing to provide merchandising or leaflets of their companies are welcome to do it in order to share them with delegates in the congress bags provided upon arrival and documentation delivery.

Visit our web page for further information:
<http://xxcongresoie.entomologica.es/>

Yours sincerely. The organising committee